

STATEMENT FROM FORMER CITY COUNCILMAN JOHN LEONARD

I am relieved that this 4 year personal nightmare is over. I have maintained my innocence throughout this painful process. It is unfortunate that the personal politics of destruction, initiated by a key elected city official and a few city bureaucrats against a handful of their perceived opponents, were so extreme and costly to the tax payers of Lubbock.