Representative of District 3 of the Lubbock Board of Trustees, Chris Comer, formally announces his intent to seek re-election in the May 8, 2010 general election. Comer, a 25 year resident of Lubbock, career banker, consultant and business person was first elected to the Board in May of 2006. Within the subcommittees of the Board of Trustees, Comer serves on the District's Finance Committee.

Comer's wife, Stacy, is a 20 year classroom teacher of LISD. The couple have two children who currently attend 1st and 2nd grade within the District.

In addition to Comer's service to Lubbock Independent School District, his efforts have benefited the LISD Foundation for Excellence, The United Way of Lubbock, Ronald McDonald Charities of Lubbock, the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, Leadership Lubbock and professional associations such as the South Plains Bankers Association and Independent Bankers Association of Texas.

Comer, an avid enthusiast in athletics has spent years coaching children's athletics in the Lubbock Monterey Optimist Basketball Program, Lubbock Soccer Association, Lubbock Youth Football Program and Lubbock Christian Athletic Association Programs.

Comer, while being very proud of the Lubbock Independent School District, communicates many complex issues and obstacles to address, solve and overcome— those including problems in public school finance and inconsistent target revenues between districts among the Texas school districts, raising the bar and quality of each and every student who graduates from LISD schools and preparing and enabling them to be among the very best high school graduates in the state, increasing teacher pay while incorporating possible incentives, formulating a more practical plan and practice of accountability which eliminates the “narrow minded process” of teaching only for the sake of one test but teaching for the overall well being of the student.

Mr. Comer genuinely feels that the current board now has the experience and cohesiveness to be highly productive and feels that is extremely important in moving the District forward to new and greater heights.

Mr. Comer’s contact information is listed above. He welcomes any and all questions.

Respectfully submitted,

Christopher M. Comer
